

Replication

To replicate the results in the report follow the diagram provided in `manual.pdf`, entering the parameters specified in the report. The console will return the raw results as well as the outputs for each test.

The output folders only keep the configuration results from the last test performed.